Airliner Falls Into Atlantic Off Ireland

24 Americans on Dutch Airliner Bound for New York

SHANNON, Ireland - (UP) - A Super Constellation with 99 persons aboard crashed into the Atlantic Ocean today on a flight from Amsterdam to New York. Officials of the KLM Royal Dutch Airlines conceded that the wreckage of a plane sighted 130 miles west of Shannon was theirs. They feared the death toll was heavy.

At least forty-six American pass-engers were aboard the aircraft, which left Shannon airport a 8:05 p.m. p.d.t. Wednesday headed for Gander, Newfound-Shannon airport lost radio contact with the plane at 8:40 p.m., p.d.t. There were indications that this was about the time the plane ran into a sudden violent wind and rain squali and crashed.

The wreckage was sighted first on the radar of a British Over-seas Airways Corporation airliner on a New York to London flight.

ONE OF SIX ROYAL Air Force long range Shackleton planes, dispatched from points in Ireland and Scotland to search along the airliner's route, reported sighting the wreckage at 6:45 a.m. p.d.t. today about 130 miles

The search plane reported it saw bodies in the water, floating wreckage and a few half-inflated life rafts. It reported no sign of

Mother of Singer Elvis Presley Taken by Death

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - UPD - Mrs Gladys Presley, 42, mother of singer Elvis Presley, died of an apparent heart attack today only a short while after reporting she felt "so much better."

Presley, on a seven-day emer-gency furlough granted when his mother's liver ailment grew more serious earlier this week, was re-ported almost overcome with

Mrs. Presley's husband, Vern-on, was at her bedside in a local hospital when she died. Elvis, suburban mansion "Graceland," arrived at the hospital shortly after his mother's doctor had pronounced her dead.

THE SINGER, now an Army private stationed at Ft. Hood, Tex., was deeply attached to his mother. Friends said much of his devotion probably was a result of his twin brother's death at birth.

The elder Presley said he was asleep on a cot in his wife's room when he was awakened at around 3 a.m. by her "suffering for breath." He called her doctor, but she was dead by the time he ar-funeral home. Arrangements for services had not been announced. The doctor said he looked in on

Mrs. Presley at about 11:30 p.m. Wednesday and found her appar-ently improved and "feeling so much better." She was sleeping soundly after the physician left, her husband said.

altar and muted organ music lent an atmosphere of tranquility to early morning wedding of Julie Commare, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Commare of Palm Desert and Jay Risvold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Risvold of Banning.

The young couple repeated their wedding vows in a double ring ceremony at the Most Sacred Heart Catholic church in Palm Desert before Father Ed-

Given in marriage by her father the bride was lovely in a floor length gown of imported nylon net with wide bands of lace inserts. Her cascading veil was held by a tiara of seed pearls and sequins, and she carried a white prayer book covered with a white orchid and flowing white streamers. Marie Commare attended her sister as bridesmaid and little Kathleen Risvold was flower girl.

Orval Risvold acted as best man for his son. Following the wedding close friends and relatives attended a wedding breakfast at the Western Hills hotel. A tiered wedding cake and punch was a'so served.

The news Mrs. Risvold attended

Coachella Union High School and the groom attended Banning Union High School.

The young couple will make their home in Palm Desert following a honeymoon trip on the coast.

Among a few of the guests were the bride's grandmother, Mrs.

Beaus, No Margaret

By MARGARET SAVILLE United Press International

LONDON (UP) — Princess Mar-garet is approaching her 28th birthday on Aug. 21 with no sign of marriage on the horizon. It's not because she lacks for interesting men in her life, or willing swains.

She still continues to be friends

—but that's all — with Peter Townsend, the handsome former RAF officer she renounced as husband material in 1955, following the dictates of conscience, church and courtry.

The friendship is close and constant. There will be flowers from Peter on Margaret's birthday, and a gift, too. During her recent tour of Canada, he sent her regular letters and they also had at least one telephone conversation. It is confidently expected the couple will meet in London from time to time this fall. He may be One of the most attentive is Billy Wallace. Margaret has known him since they went to children's tea-parties together. He is the 32-year-old son of the three supervisors. Supervisor Paul Anderson, board chairman, and Supervisor Curtis Chamberlain said it was up to the cities to take the lead and indicate what they intend to do. They argued that the action proposed by Jones and McCall would close the door to initiative

THE JONES - MCCALL move was apparently inspired by the appearance before the board of Mayor Charles Jameson of Corona who protested against the wording in a resolution adopted by the supervisors three weeks ago in which they took a firm and unanimous stand against renewal of the county-cities tax agreement should it be made inoperative by withdrawal of the City of Corona.

Jameson said he was surprised

Jameson said he was surprised at the wording in the resolution describing the present contract as "equitable and fair to all of the describing the present contract as "equitable and fair to all of the cities." He argued that it is not equitable and fair to exempt Palm Springs from the present ten per cent city allocation requirement.
